Take control of your cash flow, manage your DSO, and reduce write-offs

Are you ready to make outsourcing a part of your Accounts Receivable Management (ARM) process? An increasing number of credit professionals already have. They’re finding this strategy effective in taking control of their receivables and handling the challenges of managing DSO, cash flow and write-offs.

One solution worth considering is outsourcing the collection of at least a portion of your accounts receivable portfolio.

But once you’ve made the decision to outsource, how do you select a provider that’s right for you? After all, you’ll be entrusting them...
